

List of Medical Conditions Provoked or Caused by Food Allergy

According to lectures, citations and abstracts presented at the VII International Food Allergy Symposium in July, 1993 –
Sponsored by: The American College of Allergy and Immunology

Acute Gastroenteritis	Eczema	Iron Deficiency Anemia (secondary to GI blood loss)
Allergic Enteritis	Enuresis	Laryngeal Edema
Allergic Rhinitis (non-seasonal)	Enterocolitis	Learning Disorders
Anaphylaxis	Eosinophilic Gastroenteritis	Malabsorption Syndrome
Angioedema	Exercise-induced Anaphylaxis	Movement Disorders
Angioneurotic Edema	Diabetes Mellitus, Type I Insulin Dependant	Migraine Headaches
Anxiety, Acute or Chronic	Depression	Myalgia
Aphthous Ulcers	Dermatitis Herpetiformis	Nephritis
Arthralgia	Diarrhea	Occupationally-induced Rhinitis
Arthritis	Failure to Thrive	Post-infectious Enteritis
Asthma	Food-induced Gastroenteropathies	Primary Pulmonary Hemosiderosis
Attention Deficit	Hay Fever	Protein-losing Enteropathy Syndrome (also known as "Eosinophilic Gastroenteritis")
Atopic Dermatitis	Headaches (migraine & non migraine)	Rhinitis
Baker's Asthma	Heiner's Syndrome	Sleep Disorders
Bronchitis	Hyperactivity/Hyperkinesis	Tension-Fatigue Syndrome
Celiac Disease	Inflammatory Bowel Disease	Urticaria
Chronic Diarrhea	Insomnia	Vasculitis
Chronic Fatigue Syndrome	Insulin-dependent Diabetes Mellitus
Chronic Urticaria
Colic
Colitis
Croup

Additional Food Allergy-Related Medical Conditions

Clinically observed, anecdotally reported or published elsewhere

Acne Vulgaris	common forms of epilepsy included)	Memory Loss
Allergic Sore Throat	Fever (up to 104 degrees Fahrenheit)	Meniere's Disease
Ankylosing Spondylitis	Gastric and Duodenal Ulcerations	Mental Incapacitation
Bulimia	Hallucinations	Multiple Sclerosis
Candidiasis	Hashimoto's Thyroiditis/Hypothyroidism	Obesity/Overweight
Chronic Constipation	Hoarseness (or complete loss of voice altogether)	Otitis Media (middle ear infections/inflammations)
Crohn's Disease	Hypochlorhydria	Premenstrual Syndrome
Conjunctivitis	Irritable Bowel Syndrome	Psoriasis
Delusions	Juvenile Rheumatoid Arthritis	Rheumatoid Arthritis
Dyslexia, transient	Loss of voice	Sore throat, Allergic
Edema (with daily weight fluctuations of 3-10 pounds or more)	Malnutrition, food allergy-induced	Tinnitus
Epilepsy (in association with migraine headaches – all 5		Vertigo
